

The SPIE room reservation system helps you focus on the task at hand. Our innovative and intelligent solution increases employee efficiency, productivity and well-being.

DAILY CHALLENGES

Nowadays, booking a conference room is no longer enough. Indeed, it is not uncommon to have the room taken over by colleagues who are extending their important meeting or by another person who did not pay attention to the reservation and settled in. The result of these situations is often relocation to another room or sometimes even to the cafeteria.

These all too frequent situations cause unnecessary waste of time and reduce efficiency, thus causing stress that could easily be avoided.

SOLUTION

By installing the reservation solutions of SPIE rooms, you benefit from real visibility of room occupancy. This solution allows you to book a room instantly without opening a calendar. This intelligent solution also allows you to free up the room when it is unoccupied, all in a matter of seconds.

BENEFITS

Efficiency & time saving

Efficient and - even in the middle of the action, no need to waste time booking a room from your smart phone. Rooms can simply be reserved from the device next to the room door.

Real-time room occupancy

The room occupancy is indicated on the screens of each conference room by means of precise and colour coding.

Provides an imminent global view

User, meeting subject and planning are clearly projected. A place for everyone and everyone in the right place.

Detectors coupled with home automation

If required, sensors can determine the room's occupancy and thus automatically release or reserve it.

THE SOLUTION IN BRIEF

The room reservation system is a simple and effective way to increase employee productivity. Reduce the time needed to organize a conference or meeting. Meetings without interruption become a normal part of an efficient workflow.

We give you the flexibility to use the supplier of your choice and benefit from a variety of functionality. We adapt our services to your needs and you help improve the well-being and productivity of your employees.
